branches to have their respective classes ready and to report the names at the next meeting. The joint initiation will be held on the night of the second Friday in July. William T. Meehan, head of the degree team, and his colleagues have been rehearsing diligently. The paraphernalia has been received and the first exemplification of the new ritual promises to be very impressive. The clergy of the three Falls Cities will be invited to attend.

Bes Beckmann reported progress for the dramatic club, which now has about twenty members. Charles Falk invited the Central Committee to attend the general meeting and jollification to be held by Branch 6 on Wednesday evening. President Schalda and Oscar Maier made interesting addresses. Reports from the various branches were quite encouraging.

KNIGHTS GATHERED

Branch 6 Kept Open House For Benefit of All.

The general meeting of the Catholic Knights of America under the auspices of Branch 6 at St. Martin's Hall on Wednesday night was well attended, and a number of interesting and instructive talks were made. President Oscar Maier presided over the business meeting of Branch 6 and the necessary routine was dispensed with due celerity. The social session followed with Major Gen. Michael Reichert presiding. He made a happy address at the outset and then introduced John Kinney, of Jeffersonville, who made an excellent talk on life insurance in general and gave practical demonstration to show that a policy in the Catholic Knights of America was cheaper and safer than any other. His address held the attention of the members throughout.

Charles J. Desse told what Branch 25 was doing. F. J. Bartsch, of Branch 36, made a plea for the Knights to go after more young men. William T. Meehan told what the degree team was doing. Gen. Gus Kane spoke in behalf of the Uniform Rank and called for recruits. Other interesting talks were made by William M. Higgins, John Schalda, Charles Hill, Patrick Holley and Ben Cruise, Secretary of Central Committee. During the evening refreshments were served in abundance.

HIGH MASS AT SEA.

Monsignor Farley Writes of Celebration On the Voyage.

The Right Rev. Monsignor Patrick J. Hayes, Chancellor of the archdiocese of New York, received a letter from His Grace Archbishop Farley last Saturday. Archbishop Farley was on his way to Rome and wrote aboard ship under date of May 30. He said in part:

"We are just approaching the coast of Spain and will reach Gibraltar tonight, we hope. Up to a few days ago we have been having cold weather, but fortunately no rough seas. The absence of warm weather has been a disappointment to the Captain and passengers, and especially to myself, as I had hoped to get rid of my cold in the balmy air of the first few days. However, the last two days have done wonders for me, and my cold has now almost left me. We went ashore at the island of St. Michael, Azores, just at sunset. It certainly was beautiful evening. The city of Ponta Delgada, where we went ashore, has 18,000 people and is the cleanest city of Europe, at least as far as my judgment goes. It is Catholic to the heart, as one may judge from its many charitable institutions for all kinds of misery. This morning, the feast of Pentecost, we had such a function as perhaps was never seen on the high seas before. Dr. Tracy the Apostolic Delegate, the Bishops of Brooklyn, Savannah, Scranton, St. Joseph, the Auxiliary Bishop of Boston and the Archbishop of New York were present in full canonicals. The choir was composed of forty-five priests and Monsignors. The congregation numbered more than two hundred. The day was ideal. The sermon was preached by Bishop Hoban."

BINGHAM FOR MAYOR.

Hon. Robert W. Bingham has announced his candidacy for Mayor of Louisville, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Bingham is a Kentuckian by adoption, an able lawyer and a young man of great executive ability. In 1905 he was elected County Attorney on the Democratic ticket, and when the Court of Appeals decided adversely toward the Democrats, Mr. Bingham was ousted with the rest. Gov. Beckham, recognizing the ability of Mr. Bingham, appointed him Mayor, and in that capacity he served for four months. He was a lawyer and during his term as Mayor was well known for his work. Now he is about to see the fruition of his hopes.

The new church will be a handsome brick and stone structure, and it is now well under way. It will when completed seat 950 people comfortably. It will be a lasting monument to Father Brady, who has given his time, his labor and his earthly means to bring about its completion and dedication.

CENTRAL COMMITTEE

Held Interesting Business Session and Heard Reports.

The Central Committee, C. K. of A., had a splendid business meeting on Friday night of last week. The attendance was fair and President Schalda presided for the first time since his recent spell of illness. The delegates were glad to see him once more wielding the gavel. William M. Higgins, in behalf of the Entertainment Committee, reported that the recent vaudeville performance had been a financial success, and announced that it was planned to give an outing at one of the parks next month. The date will be announced later.

Harry Veeneman reported progress for the Membership Committee. It was decided that as many of the delegates as possible would visit Branch 362 on Thursday night. Eugene McCarthy, Secretary of the Ritual Committee, reported that everything was in readiness for the forthcoming initiation, and urged all

COMPROMISE

With Landlords May Expedite the Passage of Birrell Bill.

Scotch-Canadian Editor Caused Defeat of Conscription Scheme.

Lloyd George Wins First Round in Fight on the Budget.

WHY THE IRISH PARTY OPPOSE

There is some hope that a compromise may be effected between the landlords and the Irish people on the Birrell land bill and that the bill may pass the House of Commons before the end of August. Such at least is the opinion of Hon. T. P. O'Connor as expressed in his letter to the Chicago Tribune last Sunday. He adds: "I believe that the landlords will not be satisfied with less than the old bonus of 12 per cent. on the purchase price of their lands and the Irish Parliamentary party sees no objection to this concession being made, and I believe the real fight will be at close quarters. If the landlords be reasonable and the Ministry generous there can be a deal. And such a deal will be helped in every way by the Irish party."

But Mr. O'Connor tells us more. He says that Germanophobia, Dreadnaughts and tariff reform can not be kept out of anything now in England. Roseberry is using all his powers of oratory to make the Englishmen's flesh creep with overcolored pictures of the danger of war. He speaks as if the German navy contemplates an immediate descent on the English shores. Lord Roberts and Lord Milner made speeches advocating a resolution in favor of conscription all over the empire. This resolution might have carried, too, if Mr. MacDonald, editor of the Uniform Rank and a stalwart Scotch-Canadian Liberal, had not stemmed the jingo tide by his outspoken remonstrance. Balfour had presided and avoided defeat by having the proposition withdrawn.

In the domestic affairs, on the other hand, things have gone well for the Liberals within the past two weeks, and the fight over the budget ends the first round with honors decidedly in favor of Lloyd-George. He made a brilliant speech defending this budget, while Balfour made a speech so weak as to suggest that his heart was not in the right and that he prefers Lloyd-George's finance to the tariff reform. The opposition of the Irish members to the budget is still hot and Ireland is angry over the whisky tax and the addition to the already gigantic disproportion between the taxation of rich England and poverty stricken Ireland.

The Irish voted against the budget, reducing the Liberal majority one-half. The future of the budget is uncertain. Nobody outside the jingo newspapers attaches any importance to the bluff that the House of Lords will reject the budget. That would mean chaos and revolution, and the Lords already face two great perils.

The Irish members have to manage the debates on the budget with judgment and adroitness. They have been between two fires all the time. On the one hand, there is immense dissatisfaction in Ireland with the increased taxes, and meetings of protest have been held all over the country. It should be added that these protests do not come entirely from those who are interested in the liquor trade; they can to a certain extent be discounted, because by putting a penny on to each glass of whisky, and by a due admixture of water, saloon-keepers draw eighty additional pence an every gallon; and the tax is forty-three pence, so that the additional charge to the public brings in nearly twice as much as the new tax.

It is from this point of view that many Irishmen who are comparatively indifferent to the liquor trade—indeed regarding whisky as one of the worst scourges of these British isles—are against the new tax. They resent it as a tax on an Irish industry—one of the few industries left; they regard it as a tax on the Irish workingman—made the more intolerable by the fact that the English workingman is not taxed for his beer.

Altogether the new budget has confirmed the opinion among all reasoning Irishmen that it requires self-government to protect Ireland from the depredations of the English Chancellor of the Exchequer, whether he happens to be Liberal or Tory.

ROAD TO RECOVERY.

Samuel Rodman, manager of the New Haven Drug Company, who was operated on for appendicitis at St. Joseph's Infirmary last week, is on the road to recovery. His father, Dr. H. D. Rodman, of Bardstown, has been in constant attendance at his bedside.

SCORES HIGH HONORS.

A cablegram to the New York World says that Prince Maximilian, who was ordained a priest two years ago, has been made rector of a German ecclesiastical college at Rome. Since his ordination he has been professor of canon law at the University of Freiburg. According to the cablegram the young priest intends to continue teaching for eleven years and then will seek the office of parish priest in a large metropolis, London preferred. Had he wished a position of great honor and dignity he might have had it ere this. He is thirty-nine years old.

SOLEMNITY

Of Corpus Christi Was Observed On Last Sunday.

The solemnity of the feast of Corpus Christi, which occurred on Thursday, was observed in all the churches on last Sunday, and one of the greatest celebrations was at St. Louis Bertrand's church at 10:30 o'clock. The Very Rev. Father Clark, O. P., was celebrant of the mass, Father Dunn deacon and Father Kernan sub-deacon. The Gregorian choir sang the music of the mass and a score of well drilled acolytes added a charming feature to the solemnity of the exercises. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Father Dunn, O. P., who spoke feelingly of the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and who urged the people to attend the exercises in honor of the Sacred Heart at 7:30 o'clock every evening until the feast.

After the mass there was a solemn procession through the church. It was led by a hundred or more little boys and girls, all tastefully attired. Behind them came the Rev. Fathers Foley, Kernan, Flood, Dunn and Clark, the latter carrying the Blessed Sacrament. Three benedictions were given—one at St. Joseph's, one at the Blessed Virgin's and a third at the main altar. During the procession John J. Score, W. P. McDonagh, W. J. Connolly and John H. Hennessy carried the canopy over the Blessed Sacrament.

MACKIN'S MEMBERS

Gave Smoker to Celebrate Payment of Last Note.

Tuesday night was a time for rejoicing for Mackin Council, and rightly did the members celebrate it. A social session and smoker was held in honor of the payment of the last note on the mortgage of the club house. The mortgage was exhibited to all the members and finally burned, while the final note was ordered framed. President Louis J. Kieffer presided and every one of the Past Presidents except Ben J. Sand, who is out of the city, was in attendance. Charles Lausanne and Peter Heid, who have been quite well reported improving, and Henry Everlastage was reported well.

Congratulatory letters were read from Dr. Vincent Fallsi and Dave Hamill. Rev. Father Ernest B. Kennedy, who was ordained Tuesday, sent an invitation to all the members to be present at his first mass at St. Bridget's church tomorrow. After these preliminaries had been attended to, President Kieffer stated the object of the social session. The cigars were passed and the celebration began. There were no set nor tiresome speeches, yet all who cared had their say and the evening was spent in congratulations.

Charles Ralphy, Frank G. Adams and Dan Weber had been named to complete a statement of the work accomplished by Mackin since it purchased the club house for $17,000 in 1899. From 1902 until the present time $2,600 has been paid out in sick benefits and $1,850 in death benefits. And from 1902 to date $1,250 has been expended by the council on worthy charities. Of this $185 went to the earthquake sufferers of San Francisco. The amount does not include what was given to charities as the result of entertainments to help churches, etc. Recently a billiard room and library were equipped at a cost of $400. The report recommended the members for their loyalty and said that the council now had a club house and property worth $30,000.

Patrick T. Sullivan, James B. Kelly, President of Trinity Council, Past Presidents James T. Shelly, Vincent B. Smith, William Kerberg and George Lautz and Joseph L. Lenihan all made congratulatory addresses, and Thomas D. Clines aroused the wildest enthusiasm when he announced that the Mackin Choral Club would turn into the council treasury $1,500 as a result of the four performances of "Back to Town." Dan Cuniff, a veteran member of the council, brought the speech-making and the celebration to a close.

SEEKS NEW HOME.

J. W. Connor, the well known carpenter contractor, who took a trip to the Pacific coast several months ago, was so much pleased with the Northwest that he decided to remove there. He returned a fortnight ago and after bidding his friends goodby told them that he had decided to make his home in Seattle, Wash. On his departure last week he was accompanied by his wife and niece, Miss Margaret Knopf. Their many friends regret their departure, but hope that fortune will smile on Mr. Connor and his family in the far Northwest.

CHARITY CLUB EUCHRE.

The Charity Club will give a euchre at the University School, Zane and Garvin Place, next Wednesday afternoon and evening. The games will be called at 2:30 and 8 o'clock p. m. Tickets are being sold at twenty-five cents and the buyer is entitled to a chance on a silver service valued at $100, which has been donated to the club. The committee in charge of the euchre is made up of John H. Hennessy, M. J. Walsh, John J. Score, William J. Connolly, J. Morhorst and W. P. McDonagh.

REFORM

And Nepotism Seem to Work in Perfect Harmony in Louisville.

How the Republican Leaders Made Real Estate Deal Recently.

Grand Jury Returned True Bills Against Alleged Gamblers.

FAVORS FOR CITY FATHERS

A resident and a taxpayer was unkind enough to remark the other day that the name of the city of Louisville should be changed to that of Belknapburg, and cited several circumstances to show the reason for the faith that was in him. A reader of the Louisville Times also sent a communication to that paper calling attention to the fact that the Belknap family was being well taken care of by the present city administration and the Republican machine. The Kentucky Irish American called attention to some of these things several weeks ago, but it will not be amiss to elaborate a little.

Col. Morris Belknap is a Park Commissioner and is a candidate for re-election. His nephew, Lafon Allen, is candidate for a Circuit Judge; Arthur Allen, another nephew, is candidate for the Legislature; Alderman Heyburn, a brother-in-law, has just resigned as Alderman, but was allowed to name his successor, Alex Barret, a brother-in-law of Heyburn, is President of the Board of Public Works and candidate for Circuit Judge, and Louis Humphrey, a son-in-law of William Belknap and a employee of the Evening Post, is a member of the Republican Campaign Committee. How is that for reform from the nepotism of a little.

Speaking of reform in politics, has it even dawned on you that there is one congregation here made up of reformers from pastor down? It has a shining light on the Appellate Court bench and many of its members are allied with the big corporations of the city. This is no attack on a church, mind you, but the events of recent years tend to show that the congregation is being used as a pivot to swing inward or outward to suit the convenience of Ballard, Belknap and big interests. The congregation was looking for a site for a new church. It was found at Fourth and Breckinridge streets, so the property of Charles Ballard and Alderman J. Ross Todd was purchased for a church site for $60,000. Both Messrs. Ballard and Todd are members of the Republican Campaign Committee. No real estate agent was called in to get a commission. Oh, no! The President of the church board, who is likewise President of a big corporation, conducted the deal, and his legal adviser is Hon. David W. Fairleigh, Chairman of the Republican Campaign Committee.

The City Assessor's books show that the Belknap property was assessed for taxation at $19,600 and the Todd property at $17,000, making a total of $36,600. These thrifty gentlemen sold their holdings for $60,000 and divided nearly $24,000 profit between them. Is that not gorgeous?

Mayor Grinstead wrote a communication to Judge Pyro last Tuesday, calling his attention to rumors of gambling in the city. While that letter was being written the grand jury was busy preparing a batch of indictments against proprietors of gambling dives, white and black. It is said that those indicted claim to have been promised protection by certain Aldermen and Councilmen. A West End saloon-keeper, one of Col. Haager's pets, was arrested for violating the Sunday closing law. A policeman swore he bought a bottle of beer from the saloon-keeper. The latter swore he gave the beer to the policeman because he was ill. Judge McGee said it was one man's word against another. He fined the saloon man $15 and suspended the fine, as he said, giving him the benefit of a doubt. In many other cases the worthy Judge has taken the word of one policeman against the testimony of half a dozen witnesses. This saloon-keeper used to furnish pigs' feet, frog legs and other delicacies to high police officials.

Who was the fireman that used one of the fire department wagons to sod the yard of an East End Alderman? Why was no arrest made when a vault cleaner dumped five barrels of filth in the catch basin at Twelfth and Magazine streets? Was it because the contractor was a Councilman?

PRESENTATION EXERCISES.

The spacious hall at Presentation Academy was taxed to its utmost capacity Monday morning by friends of the pupils who were on hand to witness the closing exercises. The programme was replete with vocal and instrumental music, pleasing dramas and interesting essays. The following young lady graduates received diplomas: Florence Barrett, Ophelia M. Rogers, Katherine F. Meagher, Mary G. Warren and Mary Cecilia Reiling.

DOLLE-DEITZ.

A wedding of more than usual interest in the East End is that which will unite Miss Mame Dolle and August J. Dietz for life. It will be solemnized by the Rev. Father Richard Wuerth, O. F. M., at St. Boniface's church at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, June 30. The bridegroom will be Miss Elizabeth Dolle, a sister of the bride, and Edward Albach will be the groomsman. Nuptial high mass will follow the wedding ceremony. After the mass Mr. and Mrs. Dietz will be tendered a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dolle, 815 South Clay street. They will begin housekeeping on Breckinridge street, between Jackson and Hancock. The bride-elect is a young lady of charming personality, and the fortunate young man is holding a responsible position with a large manufacturing company. He is a son of Charles Dietz, of East St. Catherine street.

LARGE CLASS

Initiated by Local Hibernians at Joint Meeting on Sunday.

Division 4's Team Exemplified New Ritual in Style.

Interesting Addresses Reviewing History of Order Followed.

GOOD NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

A philosopher, a philanthropist and a diamond, all three combined and all in the rough, was lost to Louisville Monday when the spirit of Meyer H. Hilpp passed into eternity. Few business men in Louisville were better known; none had fewer enemies. He had inherited a talent for business and began at the age of eleven years to make his own living. He prospered and accumulated, but never closed his purse to a worthy cause. He knew neither creed nor race when the object was worthy, yet no man can approximately know how much he gave away, so quietly and so unostentatiously was it done.

The degree team was made up as follows: Ard Righ William P. McDonagh; Brebon, David J. Reilly; Bard, William J. Connolly; Ollahim, John J. Score; Chief of Escort, John J. Winn; Escort, Patrick O'Donnell, John and Thomas Langan, Lawrence Meaney, John Shaughnessy, Thomas Farrell, Robert Mitchell; Choir, Edward King, Con J. Ford, D. J. Coleman, William T. Meehan, Patrick T. Sullivan, John Karman and Thomas James Stevens.

The work of the team was complicated on all sides. Each of the officers not only had his part letter perfect, but the enunciation was clear, measured and distinct. It was the first exemplification of the new ritual and it showed that the members of the degree team were imbued with the true spirit of Hibernianism.

After the initiation Attorney Thomas Walsh delivered an able and interesting address, in which he commended the four local divisions for the active interest they had taken in the affairs of the order and its upbuilding. He reviewed the history of Hibernianism and urged the new members to be as faithful to the principles of unity, fraternity and true Christian character as the older members had been.

AWAIT THE ISSUE.

The time to hold Democratic district conventions to elect delegates to the mass convention that will name candidates for all the city and county offices is approaching. Democrats should await the issue manfully and avoid all dissension. Now is the time for faithful followers of the party to remain more loyal than ever. Attend the district conventions and vote for your choice for delegates to the mass convention. If your candidates are defeated, smother your grief. Think what the other fellow would suffer if your candidates had won. George Weissinger Smith made a manly race for the Republican nomination for Mayor. The Republican steam roller hit him and passed over him. Many people thought he had been flattened out. Instead he came up smiling and was given a seat beside the chauffeur, David Fairleigh. Democrats who are disappointed must learn to act as hypocritical as Republicans. If you are knocked down and kicked pretend you like it. The pain does not last long. Just make up your mind to do your part and you will help to save the city and county from ignominious Republican rule.

MEN WHO DO THINGS.

Mackin's members and reason to rejoice last Tuesday night when the mortgage on the building was burned and the last note paid and framed. These young men should be congratulated not only by their sister councils, but by the clergy and all good Catholics. Mackin's members have shown what Catholic young men can do when they set out with a high ideal and remain steadfast in their purpose.

Mackin set an example for all to follow. It was the first Catholic society of Louisville to own its own home. In this it preceded Trinity Council and the Knights of Columbus. The club house will be a monument for years to come to the intrepidity, fidelity and loyalty of the young men who worked for its purchase and aided in liquidating its final indebtedness. These young men deserve all the more credit because all are poor. There are no rich men in Mackin Council. Every member has to work for a living, and yet each gave generously according to his means toward the upbuilding of the council. Mackin's members will be heard from in other lines. They are all young yet. They have proven to be men who do things. They bid fair to become captains of industry, leaders in the financial and professional and manufacturing world, and the Kentucky Irish American holds that whatever blessing may come to them individually and collectively none can be too good.

AS OTHERS SEE US.

Often we hear our religion derided and the truths of Christianity denied by college professors of other faiths or of no faith at all. It is all the more delightful and refreshing then to read what Dr. Thwing, President of the Western Reserve University, had to say recently at Cleveland, Ohio, to a class of graduating nurses. He spoke in this wise:

"I speak to many who are members of the great Roman Catholic church—called Roman because of its place on the banks of the Tiber; but called Catholic because it is universal, belonging to all. But also I speak to some who are members of no communion of the church. But to you all I wish to say that religion is the mightiest resource for the soul of man. In the blessed Catholic church religion stands for life's great center of life's widest circumstance. Of it make the most. Lean back hard upon the great truths of that blessed religion. As your hands are eager in performing the duties that are given you to do, let your heart and your mind confide, as true daughters, in the blessed God-giving, man-receiving institution of the race."

Dr. Thwing is a non-Catholic, but he seems to understand thoroughly what the Catholic church teaches.

ST. THOMAS MIFFED.

Sir Thomas Lipton has always been acclaimed a great sportsman, but he seems a trifling petulant in his remarks about giving up trying to win the American yacht cup. He says: "No man will build a boat to sail under conditions that are or should be past. I am always willing to give the Americans the advantage of their own universal rule under

Very recently a mule owned by the city was condemned by its veterinary. He pronounced the animal lame and hopelessly incurable. It was ordered sold and bids were advertised for. There were several bidders. One liverman, who knew business, examined the mule and bid $61. In less than an hour he resold it for $150. The mule was perfectly sound. That is the way the city's money goes.

TALE OF A MULE.

Bernard McCartin, a popular young man of Jeffersonville, was killed by a Monon train near Howard Park Tuesday night. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. McCartin. The funeral took place from St. Augustine's church yesterday morning. The unfortunate accident caused widespread mourning among the friends of the dead youth.

ST. MARY'S COLLEGE.

The eighty-eighth annual commencement of St. Mary's College took place on Tuesday. Quite a number of Louisville people were on hand to witness the exercises. The essays and orations of the graduates were of exceptional merit.

GOES TO EVANSVILLE.

The Rev. Father James G. Gregoire, who was recently ordained, and who said his first mass in New Albany, has been assigned as assistant priest at a parish in Evansville.

REWARD

For Faithful Services Comes to Good Brother Richard.

Gets Trip to Europe After Many Years in Xaverian Order.

Taught Hundreds of Boys and Has Eight Priests to Credit.

WILL BE GONE TWO MONTHS

You boys that are accustomed to from two to three months' vacation every year, what would you do if you were in Brother Richard's place? He has not had a vacation in forty-two years, but he gets it this year. You will all certainly agree that he had one coming. Brother Richard has been so long in the harness that he probably would not know what to do with it if it were left to him. The old swimming holes that he knew around Louisville have long since been filled up and built upon. He has outgrown tops and kites and baseball, but the various heads of the Xaverian Brothers found a way for Brother Richard to spend his vacation. They have offered him a trip to Europe as a reward of his long and faithful service.

He will leave Louisville on June 24, and will go direct to Baltimore and will remain on retreat there for a week. From there he will go to New York in company with Brother Norbet, and the two will sail on July 3. First they will visit the houses of the order in England, and from there they will visit the parent house in Belgium. Brother Richard also expects to visit the birthplace of his parents in the Province of Hanover, Germany. "I would like to visit Ireland, too," said Brother Richard. "I have taught so many Irish boys and have so many Irish friends, but I will have to content myself with a glimpse of Queenstown."

Really, what would happen if Brother Richard set foot in Ireland and kissed the Blarney Stone? He has a suave and persuasive tongue as it is, but there would be no standing him at all after a visit to Blarney Castle.

Brother Norbet, who will accompany Brother Richard on his European trip, is Director of the Xaverian College at Baltimore. The visit of the two Xaverians has nothing to do with the business of the order, but is entirely for the pleasure of the two who have well earned rest and recreation.

Brother Richard was born in Louisville of German parentage and entered the Xaverian Brotherhood four years ago. He taught first at St. Martin's school on Shad street. From there he was transferred to St. Mary's on Eighth street, and after several years was made Director of St. Mary's school, in which capacity he served twenty-four years. For eleven years past he has been one of the teachers at the Xaverian College on Broadway.

Brother Richard has always had a winning way with boys and has taught many of the leading business men of Louisville in their early days. Eight priests are among his former pupils—Rev. Dr. Schuhmann, Rev. Dr. Revermann, Fathers A. J. Thomas and George Weiss, all of Louisville; Charles Barthel, of St. Meinrad's Abbey, Indiana; Father Heck, of Texas; Father Henry, of Topeka, Kansas, and Father Gabriel, O. M. C. Four more of his former pupils are studying for the priesthood, and one, Rev. Father Anselm Clemens, died a member of the Passionist order. Two of his pupils became members of the Xaverian Brotherhood.

Brother Richard is beloved by all who know him, and his friends wish him a safe journey and a joyous vacation.

ANOTHER JUBILEE.

The Very Rev. Father James P. Cronin very quietly celebrated his twenty-fourth anniversary as a priest with a low mass at St. Patrick's church on Monday morning. He and Father Charles P. Raffo were in college and seminary together for ten years, and each had to be set back from ordination for a year on account of his youth. Next year Father Cronin, as pastor of St. Patrick's and Vicar General of the diocese, will more elaborately celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination.

CHORAL CLUB ENTERTAINMENT.

Mackin Choral Club was entertained with a dinner dance at St. Monica's Park last Saturday evening. The dinner dance was in recognition of the good work of the young ladies and gentlemen of the cast and chorus who took part in the performances of "Back to Town." All spent a very enjoyable evening.

Mrs. W. J. Barry and little son Watts left Monday to spend several weeks in Kansas City with Mrs. Barry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Watts.

The wedding of Miss Kathryn S. Herbert and Raymond M. McGrath will be solemnized at St. Paul's church Wednesday, June 30, the Rev. Father York officiating.

Mrs. Ben J. Sand left Monday night to join her husband at Knoxville. Mr. and Mrs. Sand will visit several cities in Tennessee and Kentucky before they return home.

Frank Martin, Daniel Driscoll and John Fallon, who are students at St. Charles College, Elliott City, Md., will return next week to spend their vacation with their parents in this city.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
 the Past Week—General
 News Notes.

Division 2, Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Paul, approached holy communion in a body last Sunday.

E. H. King won many encomiums Sunday for his work at the piano during the initiation.

There will be but one more meeting this month, that of Division 4, which takes place on June 28.

This was a busy week for the order in Louisville, as the four divisions and the Ladies' Auxiliary held meetings.

The decorations at Bertrand Hall for the initiation were not only appropriate but very elaborate and handsome.

There is great enthusiasm among the members over the outlook for the annual outing at Phoenix Hill Park on July 5.

The many friends of Miss Maggie Lynch, of the auxiliary, will be pleased to learn that her condition is much improved.

The nine divisions of the order at St. Paul, Minn., are engaged in a membership contest. A pendant is to be the winner's prize.

Division 4 met Monday night and made a generous donation to the Catholic church extension fund. Each of the other three divisions will follow suit.

John Winn, Chief of Escort, presented a striking soldierly bearing at the initiation last Sunday. His guardsmen were the best drilled that have ever officiated here.

The Ladies' Auxiliary is deserving of every encouragement from each of the four divisions, and there is some surprise that the men do not take greater interest in their undertakings.

The County Board held a special meeting last Sunday afternoon before the joint initiation and decided to postpone the quarterly meeting until the next quarter. All bills before the board were allowed.

Rev. Father William White, of Loughlin, County Roscommon, who is visiting Father Lynch, of West Duluth, Minn., made an interesting address on Ireland before Division 1 of that city at its last regular meeting.

The euchre and dance of the Ladies' Auxiliary, when they formally opened their new quarters in Falls City Hall, was in every way a pleasing success. Hundreds participated in the games and then enjoyed the dancing.

Miss Bridie Hanrahan, of the Ladies' Auxiliary, who sustained serious injury from a fall several weeks ago and has since been at Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital, is making steady progress toward recovery, though she will not be able to be out for some time to come.

HONORED DEAD JURIST.

Many members of the Chicago bar and other business and professional men of that city were present in Judge Marcus Kavanagh's court room last Saturday morning, when a handsome oil portrait of the late Judge Thomas A. Moran was unveiled. The portrait is a gift of Judge Kavanagh and other admirers of the late Judge to Cook county. The presentation speech was made by Attorney Levy Mayer, who paid a high tribute to the intelligence, ability, energy and honesty of Judge Moran, who was an Irishman and a Catholic.

BISHOP FARRELLY ENTHRONED.

Distinguished Catholic dignitaries from various parts of the United States assembled at Cleveland, Ohio, last Sunday to welcome the Right Rev. John P. Farrelly, and to assist at his installation as Bishop of that diocese. The ceremony of enthronization took place in St. John's Cathedral. Archbishop Moeller, of Cincinnati, occupied a throne in the sanctuary, and among other prelates present were Bishops Morris, of Little Rock, Ark.; Hartley, of Columbus; Hickey, of Rochester; Burke, of Albany, and Aldreding, of Fort Wayne.

HONORS FOR YOUTH.

Edward S. Cowan, Jr., of Dayton, Ohio, graduated with honors from St. Mary's Institute in that city on Wednesday. He is a son of Edward S. Cowan, the well known merchant tailor, and a former resident of Louisville, and a nephew of James O'Neill, the popular L. N. engineer, and the Misses O'Neill, of West Breckinridge street. His friends predict that this talented young man will be heard from in the future.

SCORES AGAIN.

The Cecilian Choral Club repeated its performance of "El Capitan" to a well filled house at Masonic Theater last Monday night. Both the cast and chorus repeated the success of May, and had to respond to several encores. The proceeds will be devoted to a worthy charity.

ADD MORE BONDS.

At the recent semi-annual meeting of the Catholic Knights of America the Supreme Board purchased $25,000 additional bonds and securities and added to the old fund. The bonds and securities now held by the order aggregate $1,400,000 and make this the world's strongest Catholic fraternal society in the United States.

FORTY HOURS' PRAYER.

Forty Hours' prayer will begin at Holy Trinity church, Kentucky and Dupuy streets, at the 10 o'clock mass tomorrow. Rev. Father Berresheim will be assisted by several other priests. The exercises will close on Tuesday.

PRaises Harvest.

Late News That Will Interest
 Members Here and Elsewhere.

Many members of the order now in the Philippines are coming home to spend the summer.

Memphis Council will confer the three degrees on a class of forty candidates tomorrow.

District Deputy J. C. Rogers and the Lexington degree team went to Maysville Sunday to exemplify the third degree on a large class.

The council at Manila, Philippine Islands, is in flourishing condition. The Rev. Father J. R. Volz, O. P., a member of Louisville Council, now connected with the University of Manila, delivered an address to the members recently.

WHEAT KING.

James Patton Was Born and Raised in Derry.

Are you aware that James Patton, the great American wheat king, who recently cornered the market and made millions, is an Irishman born and bred?

Patton is a native of Myroe, Llanavady, County Kerry, Ireland. When quite a young man he came to America and began to make his own living as clerk in a small store in Evanston, Ill. Within a few years he had embarked in business for himself as a commission agent for farm products. Not long after he joined his brother in business as a stockbroker. In 1902 Mr. Patton made $200,000 in a corner in oats, but the following year he lost $150,000. He lost $1,000,000 in 1905 by crossing swords with Armour & Company. This year he started to force a corner in wheat and after four months accomplished this purpose. Mr. Patton is only fifty-four years old. He was elected Mayor of Evanston in 1901.

ADD MORE BONDS.

At the recent semi-annual meeting of the Catholic Knights of America the Supreme Board purchased $25,000 additional bonds and securities and added to the old fund. The bonds and securities now held by the order aggregate $1,400,000 and make this the world's strongest Catholic fraternal society in the United States.

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled
 From Exchanges.

Dundalk will soon be lighted by electricity.

While boating in Donegal channel James McCready was drowned.

Dr. William Rice has been elected medical officer of the workhouse at Fermoy.

William McCullen died at Ballymoney, County Antrim, at the age of ninety years.

A splendid three-story residence known as Ardhill, near Athlone, was destroyed by fire.

The store of Hall & Son was destroyed by fire at Clones. The damage exceeded $5,000.

Michael McCormick, of Creggs, County Galway, committed suicide while temporarily insane.

Rose Quinn was accidentally burned to death at her home at Tullylagan, County Tyrone.

The Right Rev. Dr. O'Dwyer, Bishop of Limerick, has returned after a month's visit to Rome.

The death of P. A. McHugh, member of Parliament for North Sligo, and editor of the Sligo Champion, is generally regretted.

Donatus Cassen O'Brien, a respected citizen of Limerick, and who was prominently identified with the home rule movement in the time of Isaac Butt, is dead.

Mrs. Rose McGaghern died recently in County Cavan at the age of 114 years. She is survived by a son and daughter, the younger of whom is eighty-nine years old.

The Rev. Albert Barry, C. S. S. R., died at Limerick and his funeral was largely attended. He was a well-known author and had written a "Life of the Saints" and "Joan of Arc."

Matthew Brady, of Graiguenearne, Queen's county, and 109 years old, was accidentally burned to death. He had never been ill a day in his life and was engaged in preparing seed potatoes for planting when the accident occurred.

The Tralee Guardians have asked the agent of the Kilmurry estate, County Kerry, not to proceed with the eviction of Richard Walsh, a farmer, whose aged mother is close to death. In case the family is evicted the results in Kerry will be deplorable.

PUBLIC THE QUITTERS.

After today's and tomorrow's games at St. Paul the Louisville baseball team will visit Minneapolis, Kansas City and Milwaukee before returning home. If the club can hold its own on this trip they have a chance to forge to the front on their long series of games on the home grounds. Manager Peitz and his players should be given more encouragement by the public here, and discourage any repetition of the cowardly hooting of Manager Peitz and Shortstop Reilly on Sunday and Monday simply because of errors made by these earnest players. None of the Louisville players have shown a disposition to quit in the face of defeat, which can not be said of a good portion of the crowd, who prove to be rank quitters when things are going against the home team, and usually vent their spleen against Heine Peitz, who has always given how to play the best baseball he knows how to play.

Students INJURED.

Three students at Notre Dame University were seriously injured Saturday while experimenting with explosive on the campus. James Connell's right arm was blown off at the elbow and Frank Gibson and A. M. Kelly were cut by flying glass. Connell may also lose the sight of his right eye. All three were bright students and Connell and Gibson have been prominent in athletics.

PLAN HOME COMING.

Branch 642, C. K. of A., will have a home coming for its members and their ladies on the night of July 27. Deppen's Garden, at Campbell and Broadway, will be tastefully decorated and illuminated for the occasion and refreshments will be served.

FILIPINO BISHOP.

The Covington Cathedral was crowded last Sunday when the Right Rev. Bishop Maes raised three young men to the dignity of the priesthood. The young priests are Rev. Fathers William O'Hara, Hubert Schmitz and Edward Klosterman.

NEW DIOCESE.

It is rumored in ecclesiastical circles that a new diocese will be created in Pennsylvania, and that it will embrace Berks, Carbon, Schuylkill, Lehigh and Northampton counties. The See city will be either Reading or Pottsville.

AMERICAN PILGRIMS.

One hundred and seven American pilgrims taken over to Rome were received and blessed by Pope Pius X. last Saturday. They were under the personal conduct of John J. McGrane, of Brooklyn.

ANNUAL PICNIC

GIVEN BY THE

ANCIENT ORDER OF HIBERNIANS
OF JEFFERSON COUNTY

Monday, July 5, 1909 --- Phœnix Hill Park.

TICKETS - - 10 CENTS.

TUG OF WAR

Will Be Feature of Hibernian Outing at Phœnix Hill.

Everything is progressing favorably in the matter of arranging for the Ancient Order of Hibernians' annual outing, which will be held at Phœnix Hill Park on Monday, July 5. Each division is doing its part in working up enthusiasm, and it is safe to say that the event will be one of the most successful ever given by the Hibernians in Louisville.

A feature of the day will be a tug-of-war between teams from Limerick and Portland. Tom Dolan, who is organizing and training the Portland team, says his men are strong enough to pull the German war scare out of England, and President John H. Hennessy, who is taking care of Division 4's interests, declares that his Limerick giants are able to pull the United States Senate out of its tariff trance.

CHILDREN'S HAPPY DAY.

A class of fourteen children will receive their first holy communion from the Rev. Father Kalaher at St. Columba's church, Thirty-second and Broadway, at 7 o'clock tomorrow. Father Kalaher will celebrate the high mass. The happy children are Frank Reynolds, Joseph Thompson, Leo Bouman, Will Becker, Louis Steber, Milton McCloskey, Amelia Weikel, Mary Losson, Gladys Fusco, Rosie Freeburg, Annie Eichberger, Ida Schlenk, Mary Sweeney and Mamie Harritt. After solemn vespers at 3 o'clock in the afternoon the children will be enrolled in the confraternity of the scallop shell and will be received into the sodality.

PFLANZ FOR JAILER.

Thus far John R. Pflanz has been the most popular Democrat to offer for the nomination for Jailer of Jefferson county. He was born and bred in Louisville. He has served the city and county for years as Alderman, Sheriff and Jailer. None know the duties of Jailer better than he, and he has a splendid record for the humane treatment of prisoners. As Alderman, as Sheriff and as Jailer he has been tried and never found wanting. His friends believe that his nomination will add strength to the ticket to be nominated next month.

STAR ATTRACTION.

The Portland Stars have booked a banner attraction for tomorrow afternoon, the Evansville baseball team being here for a return game. Everyone who witnessed the exciting 2 to 1 contest between these teams several weeks ago will be sure to be on hand again, as the former game was only won for Portland by Harper knocking the ball over the left field fence for a home run. The premier local twirler, George Boardman, will pitch for Portland, while our now famous local umpire, "Babe" Ryan, will handle the indicator.

RURAL OUTING.

The people of St. Frances of Rome parish will have an outing at the country place of Charles F. Breckel, St. Matthews, next Thursday afternoon and evening. Mr. Breckel has a beautifully shaded and spacious lawn, which he has offered to the committee for the occasion. There will be a euchre game in the afternoon at 3 o'clock and another in the evening. The Louisville & Eastern trolley line will carry patrons to St. Matthews, where a committee will be on hand to escort them to the grounds. The ladies of the congregation will furnish supper, luncheon and refreshments. It is expected that the friends of the Rev. Father Thomas W. White, pastor of St. Frances' church, will attend in large numbers.

FONTAINE FERRY PARK.

The bright, warm weather of the present week has sent crowds to Fontaine Ferry Park every afternoon and evening. Mothers and children spend entire days enjoying the refreshing breezes and inhaling the pure fresh air. The open air concerto and free gate help to attract many, and those who like amusement devices will find plenty to their liking at this attractive spot.

ENJOYING VACATION.

The Rev. Father Christmas, O. P., left Sunday for a month's vacation, which he will spend with his parents and relatives at Newport, R. I., where he celebrated his first mass three years ago. Father Christmas has been one of the assistant priests at St. Louis Bertrand's church during the past fourteen months and is well beloved by the people of the parish.

VENERATED HOLY NAME.

Steven Therry, the first layman in the United States to affiliate with the Holy Name Society, passed into eternity in New York City last Saturday. He joined the society in 1854. The society was founded more than 700 years ago, and its aim is to combat the evil of profanity. In the United States alone it has more than a million members.

PRIESTS TRANSFERRED.
The Right Rev. C. P. Maes, Bishop of Covington, has announced several transfers of the clergy in his diocese this week. The Rev. Father L. De Waegenaere, of Covington, succeeds the late Father Barry as pastor of St. Paul's church, Lexington, and the Rev. Father W. T. Punch, of Richmond, becomes pastor of the new parish at Lexington. These changes will necessitate other transfers and it is expected that the Rev. Father William B. Ryan, of Winchester, will succeed Father De Waegenaere at Covington, and Father Cooney, who has been ill, will go to Richmond.

MOURN HIS DEATH.

The funeral of Robert F. Kinberger, who died at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kinberger, at 1926 West Main street, on Friday of last week, took place from St. Anthony's church Monday morning, and was largely attended by his associates and fellow railroad clerks. The deceased was only nineteen years old, and in three years had worked himself up from messenger boy to assistant cashier of the Illinois Central freight office. He was highly esteemed by his employers. Besides his parents he is survived by the following brothers and sisters: John X., Albert F. and Joseph Kinberger, Mrs. Joseph Strowmosky and Miss Margaret, Anna and Edna Kinberger.

RIVERVIEW PARK.

Riverview Park is enjoying a liberal patronage these warm days, and aside from the shoot-the-chutes, canals of Venice, etc., there are plenty of people left to enjoy the splendid concerts given by Don Philippini and his band. The public dancing hall overlooking the river is an ideal spot for those who love to trip the light fantastic, and besides there is a private dancing hall that is used by select parties every night.

VISITOR FROM KANSAS CITY.

The Princess Amusement Company continues to furnish the patrons of its three theaters with first class motion pictures. The Casino, Princess and Columbia are thronged every afternoon and evening. All of these playhouses are well ventilated and kept cool with electric fans. Entirely new sets of films will be shown at each of these houses next week.

COLUMBIA COMES AGAIN.

The Columbia Athletic Club will give another one of its noted celebrations at Zeller's Hall, Shelby and Roseland streets, on Monday night. The members and their lady friends expect to enjoy a very pleasant evening.

STRONG TICKET.

Nelson county has a sure enough strong Democratic ticket. Among others Frank Daugherty, of Bardstown, is the nominee for Commonwealth's Attorney; F. Boone Rapier, of New Haven, for County Judge, and Joseph H. Bowling, of New Haven, for County Assessor.

SENT TO MADISON.

The Rev. Father Edward T. Hilger, who offered up his first mass at St. Mary's church, New Albany, last Sunday, has been assigned to assist the Rev. Father John Boersig at St. Mary's church, Madison, Ind. He left to assume his new duties during the latter part of this week.
